As a seasoned grant writing consultant with extensive experience securing millions in federal and state grant funding for local government clients, Christine Lane is an incredible asset to Langton Consulting. With a strong background in sales and account management, Christine brings a unique perspective to the grant development process, allowing her to successfully identify funding opportunities and develop competitive grant proposals that meet the specific needs of each client.

Christine's impressive track record speaks for itself - she has secured nearly $30 million in funding from a wide range of funding areas, including public health and safety, resiliency planning and implementation, disaster preparedness and response, community development, and historical preservation. Her ability to navigate the complexities of the grant writing process with ease has allowed her to secure funding from various grantor agencies, such as FEMA and the Florida Department of Emergency Management, Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO), the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP), and the American Rescue Plan Act State and Local Fiscal Recovery Fund (SLFRF).

Overall, Christine's key qualifications and extensive experience make her an ideal partner for any client seeking grant funding. Her ability to leverage her sales and account management background, combined with her exceptional grant writing skills and project management expertise, ensures that clients receive the highest quality service and the best possible outcomes
